

Do I Have a Successor In My Family?

More Than One Child Wants To Be Involved, But They Cannot Agree

Scenario: One business that will support one family and multiple children that want to be involved in the family business.

- What if they cannot agree to do this together?
 - Starts with communication & a sense of choice.
 - What is this business?
 - Is it more than its current iteration?
 - Is it a source for opportunities?
 - Explore why they want the business.
 - Is it a viable business plan?
 - Is it possible to go into the next endeavor?
 - Stop, listen and examine if your business can support their ideas.
 - Allow them to make their own choices.
 - Get good support to understand if what they want is viable.
 - Don't help them into a losing business.
 - It may turn out even better than going into business together.
